

BARDEHLE PAGENBERG Team

Sarah Patterson

MSci (Imperial College London)

European Patent Attorney

Location Barcelona

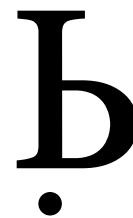

Languages: English, French, Spanish

spatterson@bardehle.es

Sarah Patterson is a European Patent Attorney with previous experience in the areas of batteries, carbon capture technologies, advanced coolants, food chemistry, pharmaceuticals and life sciences.

She has advised large multinationals and SMEs across the full patent lifecycle from patentability searches, drafting, prosecution, freedom to operate searches and opinions regarding risk of infringement. Sarah Patterson currently works alongside Henrik Skødt working in contentious proceedings for the chemical and life science industry.

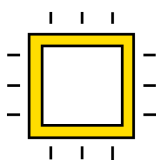

Legal Areas

Patent Prosecution

Oppositions and Nullity

Industries

Semiconductor Technology

Chemistry, Pharma & Life Sciences

Food

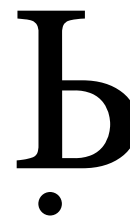

Publications

“An azide and acetylene free synthesis of 1-substituted 1,2,3-triazoles.” Tetrahedron Letters, 61(4), 152483 (2020)

Memberships

Sarah Patterson is a member of the Institute of Professional Representatives before the European Patent Office (epi).

Curriculum Vitae

2026 - today	European Patent Attorney at BARDEHLE PAGENBERG S.L., Spain
2025 - 2026	Blue Book at the European Commission
2022 - 2025	Trainee Patent Attorney at NLO
2019 - 2020	Master's Research Project at Imperial College London
2018 - 2019	Industrial Placement Student at GlaxoSmithKline
2015 - 2020	Master's Degree in Chemistry at Imperial College London